

THE Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY.

ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT MAXFIELD'S ADDRESS.

In behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association, I desire to extend to the people here to-night a hearty welcome. We appreciate very highly the presence of such a large number; we take it as a good evidence of the interest in the work of Christ that brings us here to-night.

At a meeting of the new board of managers on January 14, a vote of thanks was extended to retiring officers and managers for their efficient work during the past year, and also to those, who, although holding no particular office, helped us in many ways.

Watseessing.

Priests a hat with cardinal trimmings are in demand.

—Miss Sadie Billings of Boston has taken up her residence in Watseessing.

—J. W. Butterworth has rented P. Morrissey's house to Mr. Rogers.

—Wm. Ferguson was placed on trial in the court of special sessions last Monday morning.

—Mr. Charles Birchennoff and family have moved to Brooklyn; they do not regard their removal as permanent.

—The Orange Common Council have under consideration an ordinance providing for the adoption of the Martin Act.

—The play Tweedleton's Tail-coat was given at the residence of H. B. Thistle on Norman street, last Friday evening.

—Roger H. Butterworth does not keep a pawn-shop. The flag with the ball painted on it when displayed at his store, indicates good skating at Soverell's.

—The hat trimmers employed by Cummings & Matthews visited Bloomfield on Wednesday night. A select few from among the finishers accompanied them.

—A. G. McCraig, the tobacco merchant, is reducing the stock in his warehouse; he does not desire to be caught napping if Congress should make any reduction in the tobacco tax.

—An accident to the gas-main on Dodd street, Sunday, rendered it impossible to hold services in St. Paul's P. E. Church on Sunday night.

—The penetrating air of Wayback had a serious effect upon the lungs of several of the sleigh-riding party last week; mustard-draughts, cough-syrup and other alleviating remedies have been in active demand ever since.

—Some of the small boys who regard the gas-lamps simply as cigarette lighters will find the superintendent at the bottom of the post when they reach ground some of these dark nights.

—The members of a family on Watseessing avenue, named Warren, were taken sick last week. A physician was called in and pronounced the water that they were using unfit for household purposes. Laborers were employed to clean out the well, and among other debris they removed the decomposed body of a cat.

—Mr. Frederick H. Pitch has been requested by Mr. E. C. Stedman the poet, to furnish a copy of one of his poems for use in the compilation of noted American poetry now being made by Mr. Stedman and Ellen M. Hutchins.

—The report that Rev. J. H. Egbert of Watseessing will exchange places with Rev. F. S. Cookman of South Orange at the coming conference, is unfounded. None of Mr. Egbert's friends have had the slightest intimation as to where he will be stationed.

—Detectives from New York searched the old grist mill on Midland avenue, Tuesday, in quest of the body of an Italian whose New York friends claimed that he had been murdered and thrown into the cellar of the mill. Some old torn clothing was all that was found.

—It is rumored that parties desire to purchase the property on Cherry lane in which the brook that supplies the Watseessing hat-shops with water has its source. It is proposed to turn the course of the brook so as to flow through the property of the East Orange Water Company, thence into Silver Lake. The carrying out of such a project might possibly have a serious effect on Watseessing's principal industry.

—Watseessing's noted Democrat, who voluntarily retired to solitary confinement after the election last fall, has been seized with another attack of melancholia—the result of too studious attention to the President's late message. He has the sympathy of many friends whose hearts are deeply touched as they gaze upon him through the heavy wire screen.

—The congregation of the Watseessing M. E. Church have elected the following board of trustees for the ensuing year: President of the board, Francis Law; Treasurer, Samuel Ellor; secretary, Geo. Sherman; Trustees, Nathaniel Lawrence, William Ellor, John Whitnah, Thomas Smith, Adrian Dickerson and James Ellor.

—An unknown German who was begging from house to house in Watseessing on Wednesday, for something to eat and money enough to pay his way to New York, jumped from the ferry boat while crossing the Hudson River and was drowned. The body was not recovered.

Fairview.

—Miss Lilian Burst gave a card party to a few friends on Tuesday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale, of Franklin Hill, are visiting friends in Plainfield, N. J.

—Mrs. Fred. Mohrman, wife of the popular reader, is convalescing rapidly from her late illness.

—Thomas Hale, Jr., has returned to Holderness School (Episcopal), Plymouth, N. H., to finish his course there.

—A call has been circulated for a meeting of residents at Mr. Fred. Mohrman's, looking to the organization of a literary society.

—C. L. Potter, Esq., is furnishing and preparing his residence on Harrison street, preparatory to occupancy in the Spring.

—Mr. Henry Weilman, our enterprising grocer, lost a valuable horse last week. It dropped dead in Newark after a short drive.

—The Christian's work is to run out and manifest his wealth of heart and soul; that run is the first requirement of a thoughtful active Y. M. C. A.

—Woman's Auxiliary, Y. M. C. A. The Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. was organized on Jan. 10th, with 25 names present, a small number at first, but now we have 42 members. Our annual dues are 50 cents.

—We have had since the January meeting a regular and 3 or more special meetings. A resolution is taken at these meetings.

—The concert by the Ladies' Aid Society at Silver Lake last week drew a crowd nish, the rooms; donations have been received from members of Auxiliary, consisting of games, etc.

—One part of our work was the providing of refreshments at the house-warming, and the monthly receptions, and one or two entertainments to the boys' branch. We have recently purchased some dishes with the money from the treasury.

—At a meeting of the new board of managers on January 14, a vote of thanks was extended to retiring officers and managers for their efficient work during the past year, and also to those, who, although holding no particular office, helped us in many ways.

Watseessing.

Priests a hat with cardinal trimmings are in demand.

—Miss Sadie Billings of Boston has taken up her residence in Watseessing.

—J. W. Butterworth has rented P. Morrissey's house to Mr. Rogers.

—Wm. Ferguson was placed on trial in the court of special sessions last Monday morning.

—Mr. Charles Birchennoff and family have moved to Brooklyn; they do not regard their removal as permanent.

—The Orange Common Council have under consideration an ordinance providing for the adoption of the Martin Act.

—The play Tweedleton's Tail-coat was given at the residence of H. B. Thistle on Norman street, last Friday evening.

—Roger H. Butterworth does not keep a pawn-shop. The flag with the ball painted on it when displayed at his store, indicates good skating at Soverell's.

—The hat trimmers employed by Cummings & Matthews visited Bloomfield on Wednesday night. A select few from among the finishers accompanied them.

—A. G. McCraig, the tobacco merchant, is reducing the stock in his warehouse; he does not desire to be caught napping if Congress should make any reduction in the tobacco tax.

—An accident to the gas-main on Dodd street, Sunday, rendered it impossible to hold services in St. Paul's P. E. Church on Sunday night.

—The penetrating air of Wayback had a serious effect upon the lungs of several of the sleigh-riding party last week; mustard-draughts, cough-syrup and other alleviating remedies have been in active demand ever since.

—Some of the small boys who regard the gas-lamps simply as cigarette lighters will find the superintendent at the bottom of the post when they reach ground some of these dark nights.

—The members of a family on Watseessing avenue, named Warren, were taken sick last week. A physician was called in and pronounced the water that they were using unfit for household purposes. Laborers were employed to clean out the well, and among other debris they removed the decomposed body of a cat.

—Mr. Frederick H. Pitch has been requested by Mr. E. C. Stedman the poet, to furnish a copy of one of his poems for use in the compilation of noted American poetry now being made by Mr. Stedman and Ellen M. Hutchins.

—The report that Rev. J. H. Egbert of Watseessing will exchange places with Rev. F. S. Cookman of South Orange at the coming conference, is unfounded. None of Mr. Egbert's friends have had the slightest intimation as to where he will be stationed.

—Detectives from New York searched the old grist mill on Midland avenue, Tuesday, in quest of the body of an Italian whose New York friends claimed that he had been murdered and thrown into the cellar of the mill. Some old torn clothing was all that was found.

—It is rumored that parties desire to purchase the property on Cherry lane in which the brook that supplies the Watseessing hat-shops with water has its source. It is proposed to turn the course of the brook so as to flow through the property of the East Orange Water Company, thence into Silver Lake. The carrying out of such a project might possibly have a serious effect on Watseessing's principal industry.

—Watseessing's noted Democrat, who voluntarily retired to solitary confinement after the election last fall, has been seized with another attack of melancholia—the result of too studious attention to the President's late message. He has the sympathy of many friends whose hearts are deeply touched as they gaze upon him through the heavy wire screen.

—The congregation of the Watseessing M. E. Church have elected the following board of trustees for the ensuing year: President of the board, Francis Law; Treasurer, Samuel Ellor; secretary, Geo. Sherman; Trustees, Nathaniel Lawrence, William Ellor, John Whitnah, Thomas Smith, Adrian Dickerson and James Ellor.

—An unknown German who was begging from house to house in Watseessing on Wednesday, for something to eat and money enough to pay his way to New York, jumped from the ferry boat while crossing the Hudson River and was drowned. The body was not recovered.

Fairview.

—Miss Lilian Burst gave a card party to a few friends on Tuesday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale, of Franklin Hill, are visiting friends in Plainfield, N. J.

—Mrs. Fred. Mohrman, wife of the popular reader, is convalescing rapidly from her late illness.

—Thomas Hale, Jr., has returned to Holderness School (Episcopal), Plymouth, N. H., to finish his course there.

—A call has been circulated for a meeting of residents at Mr. Fred. Mohrman's, looking to the organization of a literary society.

—C. L. Potter, Esq., is furnishing and preparing his residence on Harrison street, preparatory to occupancy in the Spring.

—Mr. Henry Weilman, our enterprising grocer, lost a valuable horse last week. It dropped dead in Newark after a short drive.

—The Christian's work is to run out and manifest his wealth of heart and soul; that run is the first requirement of a thoughtful active Y. M. C. A.

—Woman's Auxiliary, Y. M. C. A. The Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. was organized on Jan. 10th, with 25 names present, a small number at first, but now we have 42 members. Our annual dues are 50 cents.

—We have had since the January meeting a regular and 3 or more special meetings. A resolution is taken at these meetings.

—The concert by the Ladies' Aid Society at Silver Lake last week drew a crowd

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN, SATURDAY, FEB 4, 1888.

—Mr. Frank Meler has purchased three acres of ground on the defunct portion of Newark avenue, will erect a house thereon in the Spring.

—Miss Catherine E. Miller, sister of Mrs. Jacob Meler, will shortly open a confectionery and ice-cream saloon at 215 Washington street, Newark.

—Miss Jennie Fox, the charming and accomplished daughter of Prof. J. G. Fox, of Lafayette College, Easton, Penn., who has been visiting Mrs. C. L. Potter, has returned home.

—A. L. was as all the volunteer talent. Brother Pitcairn acted as master of the ceremonies with his usual grace and smiling demeanor. The receipts made a handsome addition to the Society's funds.

—The residents of Fairview and contiguous localities, without respect to party affiliations, are strongly urging Mr. Stanford Farrand to allow him to be used for the candidacy of Town Committee man from this district. It is hoped he will yield to the wishes of his friends and neighbors.

—The Fairview Improvement Association held a large and enthusiastic meeting Monday night, at Mr. Charles S. S. Bratt's. The roll of membership increases—plus et numero—each meeting, and great interest is manifested. The next regular meeting is at Mr. R. A. Kent's, on Berkeley avenue, the second Monday of February. For the information of the general public we print the constitution of the Association.

1. This Association is formed for the purpose of improving Fairview property, in the line of providing sidewalks, gas, water, shade trees, and dry and spacious streets, and avenues in and about the neighborhood; accomplishing the work by individual and organized effort, and by securing a proper representation on the Town Committee.

2. This Association shall also deem it within its proper province, to abate all nuisances, to encourage all educational and religious enterprises, and to invite immigration of agreeable and worthy people—in other words, to make Fairview a desirable place of residence.

3. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

4. This Association is formed for the purpose of improving Fairview property, in the line of providing sidewalks, gas, water, shade trees, and dry and spacious streets, and avenues in and about the neighborhood; accomplishing the work by individual and organized effort, and by securing a proper representation on the Town Committee.

5. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

6. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

7. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

8. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

9. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

10. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

11. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

12. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

13. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

14. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

15. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

16. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

17. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

18. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

19. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

20. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

21. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

22. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

23. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

24. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

25. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

26. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

27. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

28. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and money.

29. This Association shall be known as the Fairview Improvement Association, and every member stands pledged to promote these objects by voice and vote, by time and